

Invitation to Participate in Research

‘So, what happened to UNSW Vision Science Graduates?’

Researchers at UNSW Sydney (The University of New South Wales) are seeking volunteer research participants to learn about the career pathways of Vision Science students following their graduation from UNSW.

Would the research study be a good fit for me?

The study might be a good fit for you if:

- Have graduated with an award in Vision Science from UNSW, such as the BSc (Vision Science), B. Vision Science and B. Advanced Science (Vision Science);
- Would like to report on your experiences in Vision Science at UNSW and your career path following graduation;
- Have opinions as to how well Vision Science at UNSW has prepared its graduates for employment and developed appropriate employability and work-ready skills;
- Have suggestions regarding possible changes to the UNSW Vision Science curriculum to make its graduates more employable and career-ready for the current and future labour market.

What would happen if I took part in the research study?

If you decide to take part you would:

- Complete an online questionnaire (approximately 15 minutes)
- When you have completed the questionnaire, you can also select to take part in a one-on-one face-to-face/Skype verbal/telephone interview (approximately 15 minutes)

Will I be paid to take part in the research study?

There are no additional costs associated with participation in this research study, nor will you be paid.

Who do I contact if I want more information or want to take part in the study?
